

Cô Phạm Liễu

20 BÀI ĐỌC ĐIỀN KHUYẾT THÔNG TIN

TỪ CÁC ĐỀ TRƯỜNG SỞ 2025

Theo form đề minh hoạ mới

➤ BÀI 1

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/M0x4SaUU_50

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Sleep is essential for maintaining a healthy brain, and (20) _____. It's not just about how many hours you sleep, but the type of sleep you get. Deep sleep and REM sleep are especially important for brain function and lowering the risk of dementia. Studies have shown that people with sleep problems, like insomnia or sleep apnea, (21) _____. Those who wake up often or move around during sleep are also at a higher risk of having memory and thinking problems later on. Experts believe that deep sleep helps the brain clear out waste products, (22) _____. REM sleep, which is when you dream, helps your brain process memories and emotions. If you don't get enough REM sleep, your brain may not store and process new information as well, which can lead to problems with thinking and memory. (23) _____. To improve sleep quality, (24) _____, as this allows the brain to go through the different sleep stages. Keeping a regular sleep schedule, managing stress, exercising, and doing activities that engage your mind during the day can help improve sleep. It's also helpful to pay attention to how you feel when you wake up. If you feel rested, it means your brain has had the chance to recharge and be ready for the day ahead.

(Adapted from <https://www.nytimes.com>)

Question 20.

- A. the brain's health depended greatly on the quality of sleep.
- B. brain health rarely benefits from good sleep quality.
- C. brain health was heavily influenced by the quality of sleep.
- D. the quality of sleep plays a significant role in brain health

Question 21.

- A. of whom is more susceptible to developing dementia
- C. are more likely to develop dementia
- B. having a higher chance of developing dementia
- D. who is prone to develop dementia

Question 22.

- A. whose connection to memory loss was proven.
- C. when relating to mental health issues
- B. if correlated with brain improvement
- D. which are linked to Alzheimer's disease

Question 23.

- A. Both deep sleep and REM sleep play a key role in promoting brain health and diminishing brain function
- B. Both deep sleep and REM sleep are important for keeping the brain healthy and preventing damage
- C. Deep sleep and REM sleep are critical for sustaining brain health and increase the risk of brain disorders.
- D. Both deep sleep and REM sleep are only important for physical health, not for brain function.

Question 24.

- A. specialists recommend that individuals sleep for no less than seven hours every night to maintain optimal health.
- B. health experts emphasize the importance of at least seven hours of sleep each night for overall brain function and health.
- C. experts suggest getting at least seven hours of sleep each night
- D. it is advised by professionals to aim for a minimum of seven hours of sleep nightly to support cognitive and physical well-being.

- Trích đề sở Bắc Ninh

➤ BÀI 2:

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/VioPHGfdedk>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

The phenomenon of extra classes represents a significant and growing phenomenon within numerous educational systems globally, sparking considerable discussion among parents, educators, and students. (1) _____. Many parents choose to enroll their children in these additional learning sessions with the hope of boosting academic performance, securing a competitive advantage for university entrance, or simply ensuring they keep pace with demanding school curricula and intense peer pressure. Proponents argue that such extra classes provide invaluable personalized attention that is frequently unattainable in larger, more crowded mainstream classrooms. Qualified tutors can meticulously identify specific learning gaps or weaknesses and subsequently tailor their instructional methods accordingly, (2) _____. Moreover, these focused sessions can present unique opportunities for students to delve into subjects with greater intellectual depth or to engage with advanced topics and complex material not typically included within the standard school syllabus, potentially nurturing a profound passion for learning in those students who are intrinsically motivated.

Nevertheless, the widespread proliferation of extra classes concurrently ignites significant debate and raises critical concerns. Detractors frequently highlight the potential for substantially increased academic pressure and chronic stress placed upon students, (3) _____. Furthermore, legitimate worries persist regarding educational equity, as the considerable financial cost associated with private tutoring means not all families possess the resources to afford this additional expense, (4) _____. Some educational experts also contend that excessive dependence on tutoring could inadvertently undermine the fundamental role and authority of formal schooling institutions and actively discourage the cultivation of essential independent learning habits and vital self-discipline skills necessary for lifelong success. (5) _____.

Question 1.

- A. Educators actively debate if this development is truly beneficial
- B. Such supplementary learning takes many different forms globally
- C. This trend reflects growing pressure from parents and academic systems
- D. The shift was stemmed from both cultural and educational motivations

Question 2.

- A. although the effectiveness ultimately depending on student motivation levels
- B. thereby potentially accelerating progress and deepening conceptual understanding
- C. that contrasts sharply with standardized classroom teaching methodologies
- D. assuming the learning environment is conducive to focused study habits

Question 3.

- A. which sometimes prompt schools to offer their own support programs
- B. potentially leading to burnout, anxiety, and a diminished enthusiasm for learning
- C. even though many students report feeling much more confident academically
- D. forces them to sacrifice valuable time for relaxation and social activities

Question 4.

- A. although some tutoring centers offering scholarships or reduced fee options
- B. despite the fact that government efforts to ensure equal educational opportunities for all
- C. possibly exacerbating existing inequalities and creating an uneven playing field
- D. leads to difficult financial decisions for many households with children

Question 5.

- A. In conclusion, choosing whether or not to pursue extra classes remains a deeply personal decision for each family involving
- B. Consequently, the debate surrounding the true value of extra classes was likely to continue for the foreseeable future among stakeholders
- C. As a result, policymakers are faced increasing pressure to regulate the rapidly expanding private tutoring industry more effectively
- D. Therefore, navigating the complex landscape of supplementary education requires careful consideration of individual needs versus systemic impacts

- Trích đề sở Nghệ An-

➤ BÀI 3

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/R8g3j_nl9Tw

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 7 to 11.

It is not unusual for teenagers to voice their frustrations to their parents, whether about outdated laptops or the fact that their friends own superior bicycles. Predictably, (7) _____: tales of a childhood without computers or video games, where even receiving a second-hand, oversized bike at sixteen was considered a privilege.

Undeniably, life for today's teenagers has changed dramatically. With smaller family sizes now becoming common, parents are able to allocate more resources to each child. Furthermore, the cost of many goods has decreased in comparison to previous generations, (8) _____.

Among the most profound changes we have witnessed (9) _____. Forty years ago, few could have envisioned a world filled with tiny computers, tablets, and smartphones - devices that have since become indispensable. Indeed, it is now almost impossible to imagine daily life without them.

Nevertheless, while technology has brought undeniable convenience, it has also contributed to a more isolated lifestyle. Teenagers, increasingly absorbed in their screens, often spend more time indoors and, consequently, engage in less physical activity. (10) _____. Moreover, although friendships remain important, many argue that young people today are less sociable, preferring online interactions over face-to-face communication.

(11) _____. However, these benefits are accompanied by significant drawbacks. Whether life is truly better remains, therefore, a complex and personal question.

Question 7:

- A. teens usually complain silently to their friends
- B. teens often share memories from their parents' youth
- C. such complaints are often met with stories from the past
- D. most parents ignore the topic and change the subject

Question 8:

- A. meaning fewer teenagers possess luxurious items like phones or tablets
- B. that causes some families to spend more than expected on luxuries
- C. which makes it harder for most families to buy such luxurious things
- D. allowing young people to access items previously regarded as luxuries

Question 9:

- A. is the rapid development of technology
- B. is the rising cost of university for young students
- C. are the frequent outdoor games teenagers now play
- D. was the reduction of print newspapers in schools

Question 10:

- A. As a result, modern youth are generally less healthy than their counterparts in the past
- B. On the other hand, young people nowadays have been more athletic than ever before
- C. In addition, young people desire to take more physical exercise than they did in the past
- D. With the aim of improving health, it has made teens more engaged in outdoor activities

Question 11:

- A. Today's teenagers undoubtedly enjoy greater material comfort and technological advantages
- B. Many aspects of previous generations' life were more enjoyable and convenient than today
- C. Modern teens generally face a lot more serious hardships but some enjoy a fairly easy lifestyle
- D. Some teenagers have harder lives than previous generations, with less access to technology

- Trích đề Sở Hải Dương

➤ BÀI 4

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/BPuw451EzgY>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

THE BEAUTY OF A MULTICULTURAL WORLD

In today's global society, people from different cultures and backgrounds live, work, and study together more than ever before. (1) _____. This multicultural environment brings both challenges and opportunities.

One major benefit of multiculturalism is the exchange of ideas and traditions. When individuals from diverse backgrounds interact, they learn new perspectives, foods, languages, and customs. This fact not only encourages mutual understanding, but it also (2) _____. It can lead to innovation and creativity in education, business, and the arts.

However, living in a multicultural world also requires effort. People may face language barriers or misunderstandings due to cultural differences. (3) _____. Respect, open-mindedness, and communication are key to building strong and inclusive communities.

Many governments and organizations promote multiculturalism by supporting cultural festivals, language programs, and diversity training. These initiatives, (4) _____, help people feel included and appreciated regardless of where they come from.

A multicultural world can be stronger when built on inclusion. By accepting diversity, (5) _____.

Question 1.

- A. In addition, it is sometimes better to keep cultures separate to prevent conflict among countries
- B. Consequently, some people believe multicultural societies are less likely to achieve lasting success
- C. As a result, experiencing multiculturalism in everyday life has become more common than ever
- D. However, individuals from similar cultures usually face fewer challenges when living side by side

Question 2.

- A. that encourages collaboration and helps enrich people's social lives overall
- B. having promoted collaboration and greatly enhanced overall community life together
- C. strengthens cooperation and enriches community life in meaningful lasting ways
- D. of which cooperation and social life are developed and supported well

Question 3.

- A. These similarities between cultures often create more confusion than people expect to handle
- B. These challenges can usually be overcome when people show patience and mutual understanding
- C. These kinds of issues should be ignored entirely to preserve a surface-level sense of unity
- D. These cultural differences often make peaceful coexistence difficult with shared values and expectations

Question 4.

- A. which encourage unity and proudly celebrate diverse cultural traditions globally
- B. allowed society to be exposed to different lifestyles and values worldwide
- C. supported not only their traditions but also respected others' unique customs

D. that make people feel connected to other cultures and communities

Question 5.

- A. a more tolerant and harmonious world can help people from every country feel valued and respected
- B. people can create a more tolerant and harmonious world where everyone feels valued and respected
- C. common values and mutual respects will allow people to create a more tolerant and harmonious world
- D. everyone who is more tolerant and harmonious can create a more valued and respected

- Trích đề Sở Vĩnh Phúc -

➤ BÀI 5

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/dxqvxZrdHB8>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

A stereotype is a fixed belief about a group or individual. These stereotypes which are not based on facts but on opinions (1) _____.

Among these are gender stereotypes—overly simple beliefs about the characteristics and abilities of men and women. (2) _____. This includes having inaccurate ideas, making wrong judgments about people, or limiting people's potential and opportunities.

However, as technology advances and access to education grows, gender stereotypes are less common. In the workplace, people now have more freedom to pursue dream jobs, including those once reserved for the opposite gender. One example is in the field of aviation, (3) _____. While some still believe men are better at navigation, the number of female pilots has steadily increased, more and more men are becoming nurses- a role once dominated by women.

While these two examples show that gender stereotypes are decreasing in the modern world, some people still have these old-fashioned beliefs without being aware. Then, how can this be solved? (4) _____ Be kind to everyone, and learn to accept each other's differences. And when planning your career, (5) _____.

(Adapted from Explore New Worlds)

Question 1:

- A. being observed differently in our society
- B. that appeared in various ways in our society
- C. still exist in our society in different ways
- D. whose different impact is reflected in our society

Question 2:

- A. The positive impact of gender stereotypes affects both men and women
- B. Gender stereotypes may have negative effects on both genders
- C. Leading to unfair role divisions, stereotypes are understood by both genders
- D. Gender stereotypes are shaped by societal norms and expectations

Question 3:

- A. where the job of a pilot traditionally used to be just for men

- B. succeeded in keeping most pilot roles reserved for men
- C. brought flying under long-held beliefs about male superiority
- D. which gender bias limited women's access to flying careers

Question 4:

- A. In order to combat stereotypes, it is essential to teach people about their diversity
- B. Using education to raise awareness of stereotypes, we can continue to ignore the bias
- C. Raising people's awareness of the existence of stereotypes will be the first step
- D. Had people not been aware of stereotypes, society would have progressed faster

Question 5:

- A. remember the importance of independence, self-confidence, and the passion for your dreams
- B. the importance of independence, self-confidence, and passion for jobs should be considered
- C. everyone values the importance of independence, self-confidence and passion for your dreams
- D. independence, self-confidence, and the passion for your dreams are important to remember

- Trích đề Sở Ninh Bình -

➤ BÀI 6

Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/zpovc1rrYLE>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

The Temple of Literature, also known as Van Mieu, stands as a significant cultural and historical landmark of Vietnam. (1) _____, the temple is recognized as Vietnam's oldest university. Its construction began in 1070 during the reign of Emperor Ly Thanh Tong, with the purpose of serving as the nation's center of learning and scholarship. For centuries, (2) _____. This prestigious institution was not just a place of study; it represented the aspirations of many young scholars.

The Temple of Literature is a source of national pride for the Vietnamese people. (3) _____, characterized by distinctive roofs and intricate carvings that reflect the artistic heritage of the country. The temple complex features five courtyards, each adorned with unique features and elements that tell the story of Vietnam's educational history. (4) _____, a revered institution where Vietnam's scholars were meticulously trained in various fields.

Today, the Temple of Literature is a popular tourist destination. It is particularly crowded during the Vietnamese Lunar New Year, when students come to pray for good fortune in their studies. (5) _____. For those interested in Vietnamese history, architecture, or culture, a visit to the Temple of Literature is truly a must.

Question 1.

- A. Located in the heart of Ha Noi capital
- B. Locating in the heart of Ha Noi capital
- C. To locate the heart of Ha Noi capital
- D. Having located in the heart of Ha Noi capital

Question 2.

- A. site become rigorous students servants who the of temple the wished exams civil.
- B. the temple was the site of rigorous exams for students who wished to become civil servants.
- C. servants was the of become civil who the rigorous students to temple site exams wished.
- D. students the exams rigorous servants to wished become of site who temple the civil.

Question 3.

- A. It is being known its stunning architecture
- C. It is known as its stunning architecture
- B. It is known for its stunning architecture
- D. Its stunning architecture is known for

Question 4.

- A. Imperial Academy is one of most famous features
- B. One of the most famous features is the Imperial Academy
- C. The most famous feature are the Imperial Academy
- D. Most famous features is the Imperial Academy

Question 5.

- A. The site also hosts various cultural events throughout the year such as traditional musical performances, calligraphy exhibitions, and art shows.
- B. The site also hosts throughout the year various cultural events such as traditional musical performances, calligraphy exhibitions, and art shows.
- C. The site also hosts various cultural events throughout the year such as traditional musical performances, calligraphy exhibitions, but art shows.
- D. The site throughout the year also hosts various cultural events such as traditional musical performances, calligraphy exhibitions, and art shows

- Trích đề Sở Hoà Bình

➤ BÀI 7

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/cP0jDYB-jF8>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

With over 250 million users worldwide, Wix is one of the most popular website creation tools with a drag-and-drop editor. Its Artificial Design Intelligence (ADI) feature (24) _____. They must head to the official website, look for the 'Create with AI' button, sign in or create a Wix account, and answer a few questions about their website to get started.

The questions relate to the website's purpose, theme, design, and so on. Once the Wix ADI gathers enough information, (25) _____. If users aren't satisfied with the initial template, they can prompt the ADI to create another one with the said changes. Users can customize the generated template, including colors, fonts, sections, contact forms, and more.

The website creator (26) _____, such as copywriting, image generation, section creation, and email generator, all via text-based inputs. Moreover, Wix ADI helps users in every step, helping them brainstorm the overall look and feel of the website and customize the minute details. (27) _____. It doesn't matter whether one knows the technicalities of web development; Wix offers effective designs and allows users to tweak them efficiently. (28) _____.

Overall, Wix ADI streamlines the website-building process, making it accessible, efficient, and creatively flexible for users of all experience levels.

Question 24.

- A. allows users to create and publish a website within minutes once they've set up hosting and a domain
- B. helps a website after having arranged hosting and a domain to design users and launch in minutes
- C. enables users build and publish their website instantly once hosting and domain services are available
- D. lets users to make a creation and publish a website quickly provided that domain and hosting are ready

Question 25.

- A. it produces a layout that makes errors for the website of users
- B. it generates a layout that can be used as a base for the website
- C. a structure can use as the base of the website is created
- D. a layout is suggested that using as a guide for the website

Question 26.

- A. of various other AI-infused features are provided
- B. makes for other AI-infused features also
- C. of a variety of other AI-infused features also provides
- D. also provides other AI-infused features

Question 27.

- A. Which creates an aesthetic yet professional online portfolio for designers and developers of Wix ADI useful
- B. Making Wix ADI is helpless for beginners and businesses creating an aesthetics yet profession of online brand
- C. This makes Wix ADi ideal for beginners and businesses needing an aesthetic yet professional web presence
- D. Wix ADi makes a need of an aesthetic yet professional web absence ideal for both beginners and businesses

Question 28.

- A. Moreover, designers could not be needed revising certain features to match their specific branding goals
- B. Because the AI-generated template is unsuitable to users' ideas and vision, it takes them time aligning it
- C. Although users might find it necessary to adjust the layout to their preferences, they spend no time to do
- D. However, users might have to spend time aligning the AI-generated template with their ideas and vision

- Trích đề Sở Phú Yên -

➤ BÀI 8

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/2l8k392o_BU

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Electric cars have gained significant attention in recent years as a promising solution to reduce carbon emissions and combat climate change. These vehicles are powered by electric motors, (31) _____. They offer numerous benefits compared to traditional gasoline-powered cars.

(32) _____. Unlike gasoline cars, electric vehicles produce zero tailpipe emissions, meaning they don't release harmful pollutants into the atmosphere. This reduction in emissions helps improve air quality and reduces the greenhouse gases responsible for global warming. Moreover, electric cars are more energy-efficient (33) _____, resulting in lower energy consumption and reduced dependence on fossil fuels.

Another key benefit of electric cars is their cost-effectiveness. Although the initial purchase price of electric vehicles is typically higher than that of conventional cars, their operational costs are significantly lower. Charging an electric car is much cheaper than refueling a gasoline car, resulting in long-term savings on fuel expenses. Additionally, having fewer moving parts, (34) _____.

(35) _____. Electric motors provide instant torque, allowing for quick acceleration and a responsive driving experience. The absence of engine noise creates a quieter cabin, enabling passengers to enjoy a more peaceful journey. Electric cars also contribute to reducing noise pollution in urban areas, enhancing the overall quality of life for residents.

Question 31.

- A. that use rechargeable batteries in place of conventional combustion engines
- B. not relying on rechargeable batteries instead of using conventional combustion engines
- C. which rely on rechargeable batteries instead of conventional combustion engines
- D. depended on rechargeable batteries rather than traditional combustion engines

Question 32.

- A. One significant disadvantage of electric cars lies in their ability to protect the environment
- B. Their positive impact on the environment leads to the popularity of electric cars
- C. One major advantage of electric cars is their environmental friendliness
- D. A key of electric vehicles is that they are environmentally friendly

Question 33.

- A. as they convert a higher percentage of stored energy into forward motion
- B. although they are able to turn more stored energy into forward propulsion
- C. because of a greater amount of stored energy into movement
- D. although they are more efficient in converting stored energy into motion

Question 34.

- A. it is easier to maintain electric cars than traditional gasoline-powered cars.
- B. electric cars require less maintenance than traditional gasoline-powered cars.
- C. the requirement for maintenance of electric cars is lower than that of gasoline cars
- D. the maintenance needs of electric cars are lower than those of gasoline cars.

Question 35.

- A. Therefore, electric vehicles provide a more seamless and silent ride
- B. Furthermore, electric cars offer a smoother and quieter driving experience
- C. Electric vehicles ensure a quieter and more comfortable drive
- D. Electric cars deliver a driving experience that is both smoother and quieter

- Trích đề Sở Tuyên Quang

➤ BÀI 9

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/h6-VjXqA9uk>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Lucie Basch was only 24 when she left a good job at Nestlé to create an app, called Too Good To Go, to reduce food waste. At the time, she had no experience in coding, marketing, or business. (12) _____ that too much food was being wasted, which was harmful to the environment. (13) _____, she focused on a simple idea: helping bakeries, restaurants, and grocery stores sell extra food to customers at a lower price.

In 2016, while living in Norway, (14) _____. She told them it would be as easy as throwing food away—except instead of putting it in the trash, they would pack it for customers. Soon, she partnered with Danish entrepreneurs who had the skills to build the app. (15) _____. The app sells "surprise bags" at a discount, helping businesses make extra money and reduce waste at the same time.

Most app ideas don't become successful worldwide. (16) _____. Their goal was simple: save more food every day. "We didn't wait—we just went for it," Basch says. This strong motivation turned a small idea into a global movement to fight food waste.

Question 12.

- A. A strong belief was what she did have, however,
- B. She, however, who did have the strong belief
- C. However, it was what she did strongly believe
- D. What she did have, however, was a strong belief

Question 13.

- A. She was not an expert in coding or food production
- B. In both coding and food production, she was not an expert
- C. Since she was not an expert in coding or food production
- D. When not being an expert in coding and food production

Question 14.

- A. she had shared her idea with businesses before the app was even created
- B. businesses had been shared her idea even before the creation of the app
- C. her idea had been shared with businesses before the app was even created
- D. the app had not even been created when her idea was shared with businesses

Question 15.

- A. The world's largest marketplace for surplus food today, with over 100 million users in 19 countries, is her app
- B. Today, over 100 million users from 19 countries can be found in the world's largest marketplace for surplus food, which is her app
- C. Surplus food on the world's largest marketplace, which today has over 100 million users in 19 countries, is found in her app
- D. Today, her app is the world's largest marketplace for surplus food, with over 100 million users in 19 countries

Question 16.

- A. Basch's Too Good to Go is believed to work since the focused team acted quickly
- B. so Too Good to Go is believed to work with quick action being the focus of Basch's team
- C. but Basch believes Too Good to Go worked because the team focused on quick action
- D. believing Basch's Too Good to Go worked because the team focused on acting quickly

- Trích đề Sở Đồng Nai

➤ BÀI 10

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/KMkWeXEnoMo>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

In today's digital age, online trends spread quickly and attract a lot of attention. People from many backgrounds (36) _____. They often copy and share them on different websites or apps. This behavior shows important ideas about the need to feel connected to others.

One big reason behind this is our natural tendency to follow the crowd. This habit goes way back to early human life - sticking with the group meant safety. Even now, when we see a lot of people doing something (37) _____, we assume it must be cool, popular, or worth joining.

Trends also give people the freedom to express themselves. (38) _____. By joining in, people get to shape how they're seen by others - or even how they see themselves.

In addition, there's something deeper going on in the brain. When people receive likes or kind comments, they feel happy and want to do it again. (39) _____.

People have a strong desire to belong and be part of a group. Wanting to feel included and accepted, (40) _____. Trends can be fun, but they can also push risky behaviors or reinforce narrow ideas about what's "normal".

Question 36:

- A. whose interest is in these short-lived online events
- B. to have interest in these short-lived online events
- C. feel interested in these short-lived online events
- D. to feel these short-lived online events are interesting

Question 37:

- A. which going viral or widely shared
- B. of whom the viral nature goes strong
- C. that is going viral or widely shared
- D. gone viral or widely shared by others

Question 38:

- A. Such aspects as moods or emotions, including memory, peacefulness and dreams are shared virally
- B. Emotions like peacefulness and fun used to be shared online through some viral moments
- C. People experience these moods and emotions differently when engaging with viral online moments
- D. Such viral moments reflect certain moods or emotions, such as memory, peacefulness, dreams, or fun

Question 39:

- A. Coming back for good comments and likes is less rewarding
- B. Social platforms help to create such a rewarding experience
- C. That happiness keeps them unwilling to come back for more
- D. That reward feels good and keeps them coming back for more

Question 40:

- A. popular trends attract more people to take part in
- B. they often take part in whatever's popular
- C. the pressure to take part in popular trends is great
- D. they often ignore all the popular trends

- Trích đề Sở Bình Thuận

➤ BÀI 11

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/D_2y5LR09AQ

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Underwater Research

Fourteen-year-old Miguel Diaz talks about an exciting science project

Last month I was fortunate enough to participate in a fascinating underwater research expedition in a remote region of the Gulf of Mexico known as the Flower Gardens. A dedicated team of professional researchers, (31) _____, was conducting an in-depth study to better understand the diverse marine species inhabiting this isolated reef system. The Flower Gardens lie far from the mainland, and we spent three days on a boat, (32) _____.

To gather data, the team operated a sophisticated piece of underwater technology called a Remotely Operated Vehicle (ROV). This high-tech device could monitor changes in depth and temperature and was equipped with a live-feed camera that transmitted real-time footage back to the research vessel. I found the ROV particularly exciting because it was controlled via an onboard computer, and I (33) _____.

Nonetheless, what thrilled me most was the chance to dive beneath the surface myself. (34) _____, mostly because there was no land visible in any direction. But the moment I entered the water, my fear vanished. The vibrant marine life swimming around me was breathtaking, and I had a clear view of the Flower Gardens.

The memory of that place will stay with me forever. Although the journey felt like a vacation, it was also an invaluable learning experience. The research team was welcoming, and everyone was happy to explain what they knew about the sea, offering constant support and encouragement throughout the expedition. (35) _____ and motivated me to work even harder toward becoming a marine biologist.

Question 31.

- A. was led by the scientist Dr. Matt Phillips
- B. led by the scientist Dr. Matt Phillips
- C. the scientist Dr. Matt Phillips was led
- D. the scientist Dr. Matt Phillips leads

Question 32.

- A. of which made the entire journey both challenging and thrilling
- B. the entire journey was both challenging and thrilling for me
- C. which made the entire journey both challenging and thrilled
- D. the entire journey making me both challenged and thrilled

Question 33.

- A. was allowed to operate it a few times
- B. to operate it a few times, I was allowed
- C. allowed operating it a few times
- D. a few times were allowed to operate it

Question 34.

- A. Initially, I felt a wave of anxiety
- B. Having felt a wave of anxiety initially
- C. Feeling a wave of anxiety initially
- D. Initially, a wave of anxiety I felt

Question 35.

- A. This opportunity which has truly inspired me to pursue a future in science
- B. To pursue a future in science, I was truly inspired by this opportunity
- C. This opportunity has truly inspired me to pursue a future in science
- D. Which this opportunity has truly inspired me to pursue a future in science

- Trích đề Sở Gia Lai

➤ BÀI 12

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/r3PLFk3O5Ws>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

BACK TO BASICS

Employees these days, who are expected to meet higher demands from their employers compared to the past, (21) _____. This drive stems from a society increasingly focused on consumption and material wealth. And even when we don't have the physical cash to pay for our purchases, we can satisfy our desire to have the latest products by virtue of our trusty credit cards, (22) _____.

However, the only problem with this is that many people are being driven into serious debt by an over-reliance on credit. The Internet has made it even easier for us to purchase expensive goods from the comfort of our sitting-room sofa. Driven by such convenience, (23) _____. Banks and other financial institutions also facilitate our spending urges, and for doing this, they are very much at fault. Getting credit has become remarkably easy for consumers in today's market. (24) _____.

Once you've fallen into the trap of indebtedness, it is incredibly difficult to extract yourself from this unpleasant financial situation. It is not only banks and credit card companies to blame; we engage in self-destructive behavior. Working long hours and accumulating debt is not a path to happiness. (25) _____. People need to evaluate their actions and shift their focus from materialism to the values of the past. What truly matters is not material possessions but our relationships with family and friends. In the end, it's not material things but the love of family and friends that defines real wealth.

(Adapted from Succeed in IELTS reading and vocabulary)

Question 21.

- A. are often motivated by the need to earn extra income
- B. being often motivated by the need to earn extra income
- C. had been motivated by the need to earn extra income
- D. having been motivated by the need to earn extra income

Question 22.

- A. that encourage impulsive buying of unnecessary products
- B. of which often lead to more financial stress and anxiety
- C. who often mislead us about financial stability issues
- D. which help us in effectively managing our financial choices

Question 23.

- A. many consumers tend to overspend on unnecessary items
- B. the Internet was invented to help people to relax online
- C. many people would prefer to shop in physical stores
- D. going shopping on the Internet has become less attractive

Question 24.

- A. Therefore, all customers improve their finances by carefully tracking their daily spending.
- B. Consequently, many people end up getting into debt from buying things beyond their means.
- C. Accordingly, many people avoid getting into debt by buying their favourite luxurious items.
- D. Hence, every shopper always prefers using cash to stay in control of their shopping habits.

Question 25.

- A. This misplaced pursuit is often believed to result in the neglect of true long-term value.
- B. This constant striving encourages people to strengthen family bonds and emotional health.
- C. This effort usually helps people build a more luxurious lifestyle and gain social approval.

D. This personal ambition often results in greater job opportunities and improved financial status

- Trích đề Sở Thanh Hoá

➤ BÀI 13

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/Ce0WNgnsxm0>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

How Did La Tomatina Start?

The tomato fight has been a cherished tradition in Buñol since 1944 or 1945, but its origin remains uncertain even today. Several theories attempt to explain how La Tomatina began, each offering a different perspective. Some believe it started as a playful food fight among friends, possibly as part of harmless mischief, (18) _____ and escalated into a full-scale tomato battle. Another theory describes it as an act of rebellion, where bystanders, frustrated with local authorities, began throwing tomatoes at a carnival parade. (19) _____, which led to an impromptu tomato-throwing frenzy.

One of the most popular explanations is that disgruntled townspeople, who were unhappy with city councilmen, (20) _____. Regardless of its true origin, the event quickly gained popularity among locals and was so entertaining that it became an annual tradition. (21) _____. La Tomatina returned in the 1970s after Franco's demise, as locals were eager to revive it.

La Tomatina, a festival that has grown in popularity over the years, (22) _____. It is celebrated in honor of Buñol's patron saints, Luis Bertrán and the Mare de Déu dels Desemparats (Mother of God of the Defenseless), keeping the tradition alive.

Question 18:

- A. while others suggest it began as a juvenile class war
- B. or others think that it started as a juvenile class war
- C. so another supposes it rooted from a juvenile class war
- D. yet some others say that it broke out a juvenile class war

Question 19:

- A. Many others insist that the event was the anarchic sequences of an accidental truck spillage
- B. Some others confirm that the source was the anarchic impacts of an accidental truck spillage
- C. People also neglect that the cause was the anarchic consequences of an accidental lorry spillage
- D. Some even speculate that the event was the anarchic aftermath of an accidental lorry spillage

Question 20:

- A. throw tomatoes at them in the town celebration
- B. were throwing tomatoes at him in the celebration
- C. threw tomatoes at them during a town celebration
- D. have thrown tomatoes at him during the celebration

Question 21:

- A. However, during Francisco Franco's rule, the festival was banned due to its lack of religious significance

- B. Therefore, for Francisco Franco's rule, the festival was adopted because it assumed religious significance
- C. Nevertheless, as a Francisco Franco's rule, the festival was held because it minimized religious significance
- D. Conversely, under Francisco Franco's rule, the festival was adopted despite its lack of religious significance

Question 22:

- A. so far it has attracted millions of tourists worldwide to come
- B. currently is attracting dozens of travelers all around the world
- C. it attracts hundreds of people coming from all over the world
- D. now attracts thousands of visitors from all around the world

- Trích đề sở Thái Nguyên

➤ BÀI 14

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/PdB_Mj14Avo

Read the following passage about the harmful impact of keeping elephants in zoos and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 25 to 29.

One of the main arguments in favour of large animals living in zoos has been called into question, at least in the case of the particularly large ones. Wildlife experts are warning against having elephants in zoos for they have far shorter lifespans there than they do in the wild or as working animals.

The source of this is a survey blaming the captivity of elephants for the fact that they (18) _____. Asian elephants used as working animals live for an average of 41.7 years, while Asian elephants in zoos only reach the age of 18.9 years on average. African elephants in zoos live for 16.9 years on average, far less than that of African elephants in the wild at 35.9 years. (19) _____.

The question which needs to be asked is why. (20) _____. African elephants in the wild cross huge areas of grassy land every year; Asian elephants are used to work in transportation and agriculture. It is not uncommon for an elephant in a zoo to be restricted to an area the size of a football pitch. This restrictive habitation, (21) _____, leads to stress.

The report, the work of wildlife scientific officer Ros Clubb, proves one widely held belief completely wrong – namely, the idea of life in a zoo being longer, healthier and happier than life in the animal's natural habitat. Wildlife experts are recommending every zoo should rethink the captivity of elephants (22) _____.

(Adapted from Use of English for Advanced)

Question 25:

- A. live half as long in zoos as those living free or working
- B. whose lifespan is not so long as that of the wild and free
- C. which have a longer life than those in the natural world
- D. having been in zoos as long as those in the wilderness

Question 26:

- A. Additionally, elephants born in zoos have a comparatively low chance of surviving to adulthood
- B. Yet, elephants will have better chance of reaching full maturity provided that they are born in zoos

- C. Therefore, elephants raised in captivity have higher chance of survival compared to grown ones
- D. In contrast, it is rather unlikely for adult elephants to stay alive in captivity as baby elephants do

Question 27:

- A. The report is entirely to take the blame for the lack of exercise and stress factors
- B. The report says that two factors are largely to blame: lack of exercise and stress
- C. Such two factors as stress and lack of exercise are reported to deny responsibility
- D. Two factors, namely stress and lack of exercise, are held responsible for the report

Question 28:

- A. accompanied by the occasional arrival of calm, silent, camera-free staff members
- B. combined with the constant stream of curious, chatty, camera-wielding visitors
- C. comes together with the continuous flow of eager, talkative, photo-taking tourists
- D. integrating into the irregular appearance of indifferent, quiet, device-free guests

Question 29:

- A. and possibly stop keeping all large animals in zoos altogether
- B. but ensures better living conditions for all larger animals
- C. or putting a stop to all large animals being kept in captivity
- D. while making attempts to capture all animals in larger zoos

- Trích đề Sở Hải Phòng -

➤ BÀI 15

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/lyYXIdmivH8>

Read the following passage about cultural identity and mark the letter A, B, C or D on your answer sheet to indicate the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 18 to 22.

Cultural identity plays a significant role in shaping how individuals see themselves and interact with the world. It includes language, traditions, customs, and values that are passed through generations. One key element of this concept is language, (18) _____. Language not only enables communication but also reflects the worldview, history, and collective memory of a community.

In recent years, the importance of preserving cultural identity (19) _____, especially in the context of globalization. Globalization presents significant challenges for the survival of local cultures. In many places, young people are shifting toward global trends, sometimes at the cost of traditional practices and values. (20) _____.

To address this, many cultural preservation projects have been launched. Governments and organizations are working together to promote traditional arts, revive indigenous languages, and celebrate local customs. Because these efforts aim to protect and promote cultural values, (21) _____.

Cultural identity should not be viewed as something fixed, but rather as something that adapts over time in response to social and cultural changes - a natural and beneficial shift. (22) _____.

(Adapted from www.exceptionalfutures.com)

Question 18.

- A. where people use it to express cultural identity
- B. which serves as a powerful symbol of cultural identity

- C. that many communities rely on to protect cultural identity
- D. is often ignored because it has little connection to cultural identity

Question 19.

- A. was given more attention by communities and policymakers
- B. has been increasingly emphasized by communities and policymakers
- C. increasingly becomes a focus among communities and decision-makers
- D. had gained increasing attention from policymakers and communities

Question 20.

- A. Modern trends have helped people forget about losing traditional values
- B. Recent developments have encouraged people to accept losing traditional values
- C. Some cultural shifts have caused people to ignore losing traditional values
- D. These changes have made many people worry about losing traditional values

Question 21.

- A. it builds a society that is more diverse and inclusive
- B. building a diverse and inclusive society are the goal
- C. they help build a more diverse and inclusive society
- D. a diverse and inclusive society helps being built

Question 22.

- A. Such flexibility ensures that cultural identity remains meaningful in a changing world
- B. Flexibility in cultural identity helps communities preserve meaning in today's modern societies
- C. Cultural identity remains meaningful when its flexibility meets the needs of global citizens
- D. Flexibility has made cultural identity more meaningful to modern generations

- Trích đề Sở Quảng Ninh

➤ BÀI 16

➤ Link video chữa: <https://youtu.be/eC4hAVLQEWo>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

If you say "I am having an argument", most people will assume that you are picking a fight. But this is not necessarily true. The ability to argue in a controlled way is a fundamental skill.

The Greeks and Romans, (36)_____ have had such an enormous impact on our own culture, also influenced the way we argue. Aristotle (384-322 BC), the Greek philosopher, wrote a work called "Rhetorica" which laid down rules to follow in order to argue successfully. In these ancient societies, writing was used less widely than in ours, (37)_____. There were no newspapers and no television to help people decide what they thought about social affairs. Practised speakers, known as orators, who spoke on formal occasions and at public meetings, were critical in helping to form opinions. Orators used all the tricks of rhetoric to get their points across.

In Shakespeare's play Julius Caesar, Mark Antony is (38)_____, his friend, that he makes a powerful speech to the Roman people. Shakespeare, who knew from his reading about the Roman art of public speaking, gives his character powerful lines which win the people over to his side. (39)_____, Antony addresses his audience with the lines, "Friends, Romans, countrymen, lend me your ears..." If Anthony were transported in time and space to the Houses of Parliament in Britain today, he would almost certainly recognise what was going on. He would realise that when politicians "debate" bills or motions, (40)_____. Whether he would be impressed by what he heard is, of course, another matter.

Question 36.

- A. for which ideas about law, science, the arts and society
- B. whose ideas about law, science, the arts and society
- C. who imposed ideas about law, science, the arts and society.
- D. which gives ideas about law, science, the arts and society

Question 37.

- A. so reformers instinctively followed strong orators
- B. so elite people avoided speaking in the media
- C. hence public speaking was very important
- D. thus arguing was likely to get you in trouble

Question 38.

- A. enough for the event of assassinating Caesar
- B. such an angry assassination of Caesar
- C. so angry about the assassination of Caesar
- D. too much anger towards the murder of Caesar

Question 39.

- A. Spoken by one of the most famous orators
- B. Being spoken about as the best Roman theater play
- C. Speaking like a true Roman orator
- D. Having spoken several times about the Roman

Question 40.

- A. he includes rhetorical questions which are not meant to be answered.
- B. they are the most powerful ways of winning over the audiences in an argument.
- C. they are following on from the lines that were laid down in the ancient world.
- D. he highlights the prominence of the arguing techniques our ancestors invented.

- Trích đề thi thử TN trường THPT chuyên Trần Phú – Hải Phòng

➤ Bài 17

➤ Link video chữa: https://youtu.be/A36LB_7E3tc

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Nature Makes You "Feel More Alive"

With all these benefits of being out in nature, it's probably no surprise that (18) _____. Being outdoors gives us energy, makes us happier, helps us relieve the everyday stresses of our over-scheduled lives, opens the door to creativity, and helps us be kind to others.

No one knows if there is an ideal amount of nature exposure, though Strayer says that longtime backpackers suggest a minimum of three days to unplug from our everyday lives. Nor can anyone say how nature compares to other forms of stress relief or attention restoration, such as sleep or meditation. Both Strayer and Bratman say we need more careful research (19) _____.

Still, the research does suggest there is something about nature that keeps us psychologically healthy, and that is good to know, especially since nature is a resource that is free and (20) _____. Results like these should encourage us as a society to consider more carefully how we preserve our wilderness spaces and our urban parks.

And while the research may not be conclusive, Strayer is optimistic (21) _____ that there is something about nature that renews us, allowing us to feel better, to think better, and to deepen our understanding of ourselves and others.

"You can't have centuries of people writing about this and not have something going on," says Strayer. "If you are constantly on a device or in front of a screen, (22) _____."

(Adapted from <https://www.dailygood.org>)

Question 18.

- A. something makes us feel more alive and vital about nature
- B. nature makes something about us feel more alive and vital
- C. nature makes us feel more alive and vital about something
- D. something about nature makes us feel more alive and vital

Question 19.

- A. before we came to any definitive conclusions to tease out these effects
- B. to tease out these effects before we come to any definitive conclusions
- C. that these effects tease out before we come to any definitive conclusions
- D. which tease out these effects before we come to any definitive conclusions

Question 20.

- A. that much people can access by walking out the door
- B. that many of us can access by just walking outside our door
- C. which many of us can be accessed by just walking outside our door
- D. which many people can reach by walking out the door

Question 21.

- A. that science will finally show what we've believed for a long time
- B. that science will show finally what we believed since long time
- C. that science will to show what we have believed for so long time
- D. that science finally will show what have we believed for a long time

Question 22.

- A. pretty spectacular: the real world is that you're missing out on something
- B. something that is pretty spectacular: the real world you're missing out on

- C. you're missing out on pretty spectacular something that is: the real world
- D. you're missing out on something that is pretty spectacular: the real world

- Trích đề Sở Khánh Hoà

➤ BÀI 18

➤ Link video chữa chi tiết: <https://youtu.be/ckgII3v-QtA>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Pelé, often regarded as one of the greatest football players in history, (11) _____ in both Brazilian and international football. Born in Edson Arantes do Nascimento in 1940, he rose to fame at a young age with his incredible performances for Santos FC and the Brazilian national team. By the time he was 17, he had already won his first FIFA World Cup and became the youngest player to win a World Cup.

Known for his exceptional technique and scoring ability, Pelé became a global icon (12) _____. His vision on the field, combined with his athleticism and creativity, revolutionized the way football was played. He later played for the New York Cosmos, helping to grow the sport's popularity in the United States.

Pelé's name remains synonymous with excellence and dedication in the world of football. His achievements include scoring over 1,000 career goals, winning three World Cups, and receiving countless honors and awards. During his playing days, Pelé was for a period the best-paid athlete in the world. After retiring in 1977, Pelé was a worldwide ambassador for football. (13) _____.

Possessing remarkable athleticism and a keen sense of strategy, (14) _____. His training regimen, which includes intense workouts and a strict diet, ensures that he remains at peak performance. This dedication has allowed him to adapt his playing style over the years, maintaining his relevance in an ever-evolving sport.

In addition to his contributions on the field, Pele also supported various social causes and promoted education through sports. (15) _____. Ultimately, Pele's legacy is defined not only by his records but also by his commitment to making a positive impact in the world.

Question 11.

- A. making a significant impact
- B. having a significant impact
- C. whose significant impact is
- D. has made a significant impact

Question 12.

- A. which earned him a fearsome image in public
- C. who was feared by his fans and rivals alike
- B. of whom the fame helped to shape football
- D. which made him a legendary figure in the sport

Question 13.

- A. Pele's dedication and legacy have inspired countless young players

- B. Inspired by many young athletes in the world, Pele worked relentlessly
- C. Many young fans in the world were motivated to follow Pele's legacy
- D. Pele tried to encourage youth by attending several training camps

Question 14.

- A. He consistently shows people around the world how simple it is to become a football star
- B. Winning multiple trophies in his career helps Pele gain limited recognition from the public
- C. Pelé consistently demonstrates why he is considered one of the greatest players of all time
- D. There are occasions Pelé gets praised as the best footballer in football history by analysts

Question 15.

- A. Charities haven't used money from Pelé to support various projects and programs focused on youth development and poverty reduction.
- B. Millions of dollars have been donated by him to support various causes, supporting programs focused on youth development and poverty reduction.
- C. Supporting various charities, youth footballers receive funds from Pelé to support programs focused on youth development and poverty reduction.
- D. He has been donated time and money from many charitable organizations with the aim to support youth development and poverty reduction.

- Trích đề Sở Yên Bái

➤ BÀI 19

➤ Link video chữa chi tiết: <https://youtu.be/UvJQ7OSWmK0>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

WHY DRONES LOSE CONTROL?

During a drone show, the operator from the ground center will send signals in real time, (18)_____. Therefore, an important cause of drones losing control is radio interference. The radio environment is often complex with many different frequencies, including those not registered with the Radio Frequency Directorate, or jammers. This interference can come from other radio devices, electromagnetic interference sources, or natural phenomena such as lightning. These factors can also cause interference with GPS signals, (19)_____. This signal is easily affected or obscured by objects such as buildings, trees, or electromagnetic interference.

Additionally, errors in the control code can cause the drones to deviate from their orbits and (20)_____. Drone demonstrations require careful programming and design. If the central processor fails, the entire formation can shut down and the show will fail. Environmental factors such as wind, humidity, and weather also play an important role in the success of the demonstration. For example, strong winds can cause the drone to deviate from its flight path or lose control. (21)_____.

Regardless of external factors, the failure of a drone show also depends on the role of the operator. If they lack technical skills and expertise, they can mishandle or misjudge the situation during the show. In addition, (22)_____, the risk of errors will increase significantly

Question 18:

- A. It is ensured that the correct pre-programmed trajectory fly with the drone
- B. which ensuring the drone flying in the correct pre-programmed trajectory
- C. ensuring that the drone flies in the correct pre-programmed trajectory
- D. they ensured that the drone flies in the correct pre-programmed trajectory

Question 19:

- A. help drones determine their exact location in programmed trajectory to fly
- B. which help drones determine their exact location and fly in a programmed trajectory
- C. that help drones determine their exact location and flight in a programmed trajectory
- D. they help drones determine their exact location in programmed trajectory to fly

Question 20:

- A. without any collision
- B. collide with each other
- C. collision began to happen
- D. still causing collision

Question 21:

- A. It is high temperatures that causes the motor overload
- B. It can be caused the motor overloaded by high temperatures
- C. High temperatures can cause the motor to overload
- D. The motor can cause overloading by high temperatures

Question 22:

- A. unless the inadequate show's preparation were being processed
- B. while the inadequate show's preparation is being processed
- C. if the preparation process before the show is inadequate
- D. though it is inadequate to prepare for the process in the show

- Trích đề Sở Bình Phước

➤ BÀI 20

➤ Link video chữa chi tiết: <https://youtu.be/fcQD70nf7Jo>

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct word or phrase that best fits each of the numbered blanks.

Exams coming up? Use the science of memory to improve how you revise

To make your revision more effective, it's important to engage with the material actively (6) _____. Simply highlighting text may seem like a good idea, but it doesn't require much thought. Instead, read through the material first and then highlight only the three most important points. This forces you to think critically about what you're reading, (7) _____.

(8) _____. Writing down the key points helps deepen your understanding and enhances memory recall. Rephrasing forces your brain to process the information more actively, which makes it easier to retain.

Finally, make revision more interesting by incorporating creative techniques. (9) _____ personal touches like doodling or turning notes into a song can help reinforce learning, making the revision process more enjoyable and memorable.

(10) _____, and making the process enjoyable, you'll significantly improve your chances of success.

Question 6.

- A. except for reliability of passive approaches
- B. compared to reliably passive approaches
- D. rather than relying on passive methods
- C. other than passive methods to rely on

Question 7.

- A. which boost your memory of the information
- B. to enhance the likelihood of retaining the information
- C. increases your ability to remember the information
- D. improving your chances of remembering the information

Question 8.

- A. Next, learn in your own way is what to be rephrased.
- B. Next, rephrase the words that you've learnt in your own.
- C. Next, it is what you've learnt that rephrased in your own way.
- D. Next, rephrase what you've learned in your own words.

Question 9.

- A. When you are not interested in the material, make up stories, rhymes, and even acronyms to be engaged in the content of methods.
- B. Once you are tired of using the material, using methods like stories, rhymes, and even acronyms makes more engaging content.
- C. If the material doesn't capture your interest naturally, use methods like stories, rhymes, or even acronyms to make the content more engaging.
- D. Unless the material interests you, you can make more engaging methods by using contents like stories, rhymes, or even acronyms.

Question 10.

- A. If you take part in more activities, learn to rephrase
- B. By being more active, rephrasing what you learn
- C. To be more active, rephrase what you have learnt
- D. Participating in more activities, learning what you rephrase

Trích đề Sở Bắc Giang